This Boston hopeful logs seven marathons

K mart 4288, Portland, OR — There is a Boston Marathon hopeful among the management staff at 4288. Terry Tess, merchandise manager is a serious competitor when it comes to the marathon. He has completed seven marathons, the most recent at Seaside, Oregon where he covered the 26.2 mile course in 2 hours, 59 minutes.

Terry explains that in order to run at Boston, you must qualify at 2 hours, 50 minutes for his age group. He ran a 2 hours, 45 minutes time in the Spokane Marathon, which is also his personal best for the distance.

Terry says he does nothing special to train for his marathons. He just tries to log as many miles as he can between his home life and work, averaging about 10 miles a day. He ran over 3,400 miles last year.

His original goal in running was to complete a marathon before his 30th birthday. He ended up running four marathons last year. The next two years were spent on quality rather than quantity. The first four races he ran at about 3 hours, 30 minutes. He has since completed two marathons under 2 hours, 50 minutes.

Just for the record, Terry says that he finished 7th at the 1980 Spokane marathon. He won the 1980 Walla-Walla Half Marathon, 13.1 miles in 1 hour, 20 minutes.

His ultimate goal in running now is to run Boston in a personal best and to meet the man who inspired him through all the miles - Mr. Bill Rogers, four time Boston winner.

San Francisco here they come

K mart 3053, Pleasant Hill, CA — Although he's not in training for the Boston Marathon, manager Noel Doyle is a very serious runner. He ran the Napa Valley Marathon in 1981 and is currently training for a few marathons to be run this year.

Noel will run the San Francisco Marathon on July 11 and a local 10 kilometer race in May along with merchandise manager Bruce Paulsen and assistants Craig Jones and Ed McGee.

Another employee, Scott Molina, recently completed the Nautilus Triathlon in Hawaii. Other accomplishments of Scott's include winning the 1980 Pinole Marathon in a record 2:24:25 on a very hilly course. He will compete again at the Pinole this year and is also planning to run the San Francisco marathon.

Fine sportsmanship garners basketball's Ted Ducey Award

K mart 3334, LaVerne, CA — "Tim Roe, appliance manager, has a strong ambition for success and it appears that his attitude has finally paid off," reports Brian Parliman.

Tim, a senior at the University of La Verne, has just completed his final season with the Leopard basketball team. Struggling for the past four years, Tim was able to pull the team over the .500 mark with his leadership and unique attitude.

His efforts did not go unnoticed. He received second team SCIAA honors and the Ted Ducey Award for sportsmanship shown throughout the season.

This award is not only voted by the coaches of the league, but by all of the players as well. Tim claims he was truly surprised to receive this award.

He will graduate in the spring with a BA in business administration.

Teen pageant finalist looks towards nationals

K mart 9267, Artesia, New Mexico — "Diana Briggs, distributive education student and 9267 employee has been selected to be a finalist in the 1982 Miss New Mexico Teenager Pageant to be held at Santa Fe College on June 13," reports LaVonne Coke.

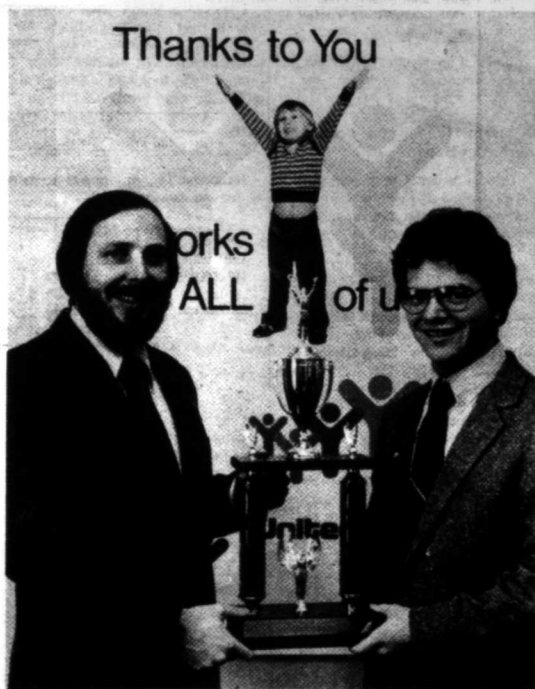

The Miss New Mexico National Teenager Pageant is the official state final to the Miss National Teenager Pageant to be held in August.

Each contestant accepted will be requested to participate in the volunteer community service program of the Pageant. This program teaches teenagers to share and to participate in school and civic affairs. A mini-modeling charm course will be given during the weekend of the pageant.

The winner of the Miss New Mexico National Teenager Pageant will receive a cash scholarship, other prizes and will be fully sponsored to compete in the Miss National Teenage Pageant to be held at Lehigh, Florida in August.

Contestants will be judged on scholastic achievement-leadership, poise, personality and appearance. Each contestant will have a choice of either reciting a 100 word essay on the subject "What's Right about America" or a two minute talent presentation providing her own music and/or props.

Diana has hobbies of waterskiing, dancing, singing and tennis.
